Black Box Gallery Announces the Opening of “Multiple Market” Exhibit

November 28, 2011 [Copenhagen] — Black Box Gallery is pleased to announce an exhibition of multiples for the holiday season. Multiples are artworks in editions and thus can often have a more affordable price, as there can be often be many copies of each artwork. This ties in with one of the intentions of Black Box Gallery, which is to make art assessable to anyone with an interest in art. A multiple could be a good Christmas gift idea to art aficionados.

The works to be exhibited have various forms and will include artist’s books, prints, art made of Lego blocks and interactive artworks. Artists often experiment with different materials in their production of multiples.

The artists to be exhibited are all involved in new media come from five different countries: Ole Kristensen [DK], Mogens Jacobsen [DK], Signe Vad [DK], exonemo [JP], Pomodoro Bolzano [DE], Frieder Nake [DE] , Manfred Mohr [DE], Benjamin Zuber [DE], Eduardo Kac [USA], Tristan Perich [USA], France Cadet [FR], Miguel Chevalier [FR], UBERMORGEN.COM [AT], and Heath Bunting [GB].

The exhibition opens Thursday December 1st from 4pm to 8pm.

Regular opening hours are Wednesday through Friday from 12 to 5 PM and Saturdays from 12 to 3 PM – Also available by appointment.
